

EPISODE 31

Remember Where You Came From

REMEMBER

When we remember where we came from...
...we notice the alien, orphan, and widow.

When we take care of the alien, orphan, and widow...
...we are reminded of where we came from.

ANCIENT COVENANTS

Preamble

Historical Summary

Demands/Rules/Laws

Rewards for Obedience;

Punishments for Disobedience

Conclusion

ANCIENT COVENANTS

Deuteronomy as Covenant

Preamble: Deut. 1a

Historical Summary: Deut. 1b–4

Demands/Rules/Laws: Deut. 5–26

Rewards: Deut. 28a

Punishments: Deut. 28b

Conclusion: Deut. 32

ANCIENT COVENANTS

Torah as Covenant

Preamble: Genesis

Historical Summary: Exodus

Demands/Rules/Laws: Leviticus

Rewards/Punishments: Numbers

Conclusion: Deuteronomy

RECOMMENDATIONS

You stuck with us through Episode 31!

We are practically at the end of Torah, but there is one more test. Have you internalized the structure of the Books of Moses? Can you succinctly communicate the narrative of God up to this point? Please do not skip the Session 1 Capstone!

Don't race ahead to Session 3 (or 4).

A big part of our goal is to understand the full, unified narrative of the Bible. Session 2 is crucial to understanding so many of the words of Jesus (and it isn't even that much). Keep moving forward—binge to the end of Session 5. Then dive deep or jump around.

Take someone on the journey with you.

Use the Groups page on our website to find people, or recruit a friend. Engage the Text. Wrestle honestly. Utilize the Study Tools from the show notes. And feel free to set aside the things you don't agree with. It's not too late to find your community.

Find the help you need.

We have all kinds of resources. Explore the website. Check the show notes. If all else fails, use the Contact page to get in touch with us.

“I dance for the things I don't know today. I'm going to discover something amazing. It's not today—but I dance because someday, maybe, I will.”

MEET YOUR HOSTS

Josh
Bossé

Josh Bossé is our virtual BEMA Campus Minister with Impact Campus Ministries. He is passionate about digging deep into the Text and finding practical, psychological, cultural, and mystical ways of weaving ourselves into God's story. He and his wife, Sophia, have established a home in Cincinnati with their son.

Brent
Billings

Brent Billings began his career in production in 2003, which ultimately led to Moscow, Idaho, in 2012. He started BEMA classes in 2013, and traveled to Israel and Turkey with Marty in 2016. Upon returning, they launched the podcast. Brent joined Impact Campus Ministries full-time in 2020. He and his wife, Maggi, have two sons, Darius and Torin, and one German Shepherd, Maple.

Marty
Solomon

Marty Solomon grew up in the Reformed tradition before getting his B.A. in Christian Ministries from Boise Bible College. In 2008 he studied in Israel with Ray Vander Laan and was challenged to grapple with his own Jewish heritage. He developed BEMA Discipleship as a way to share his experience with others. He and his wife, Becky, live in Cincinnati with their two kids, Abigail and Ezekiel.

Reed
Dent

Reed Dent grew up in Kansas City and graduated from Truman State University, where he now serves as the director of Campus Christian Fellowship. He and his wife, LeAnn, have three boys. He enjoys listening to records and watching the Chiefs, and he reads aloud to anyone who will listen.

Elle
Grover Fricks

Elle Grover Fricks has a Master of Arts in the Bible & the Ancient Near East from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, undergraduate degrees in psychology and music from Washington State University, and spent four years in mental health as a state-certified behavioral therapist. She is the teaching pastor of Refuge Church in Pullman, WA, and lives on the Palouse with her husband and three kids.